

Resources

We've collected a bit of information to help you with anything from the recording process, licensing and copyright to replication and distribution.

The distribution section includes topics that deal with getting your music out in the marketplace. Topics include CD replication, licensing, ISRC codes bar-codes and more.

The recording section contains various articles relating to recording, mixing and sound design.

If you have any comments please let us know through our contact page.