Demystifying Mastering - Our Demystifying Mastering series was created to answer the simple question, "what is mastering?" Over a number of episodes, the Demystifying Mastering podcast series will discuss a range of topics related to audio mastering and the role of a mastering engineer. Additionally, we'll touch on a few other topics including the fundamental principles of audio recording and production, mix essentials and techniques and tips to maximize the potential of your audio recordings.

Artist Focus - The Artist Focus podcast series was created to showcase the artists, producers and musicians we have had the pleasure of working with at the Kitchen. These podcasts will include information, audio clips and interviews of many local, national and international acts. For music fans it will be a quick way to get an ear on some great new music or discover a few great records that you may have missed.
