

Hotels

Below is a listing of local hotels that we recommend. Let us know if we can assist you in securing a reservation.

Ferrington House

A true five-star inn. Situated on a converted dairy farm, five miles south of Chapel Hill, beautifully landscaped gardens, excellent service, spacious rooms, quiet, expensive.

Hotel Sienna

Just down 'the hill' on East Franklin Street, modeled after an Italian, Palladio-esque hotel. Very comfortable, large rooms, very good service, hotel of choice for many celebrities. Moderately Expensive.

The Carolina Inn

Located right downtown, grand-old southern hotel, beautiful ballroom, a great old bar and excellent restaurant, southern aristocrat in vibe, be sure to ask to stay in the new section (larger and quieter rooms). Moderate to moderately expensive.

Chapel Hill Sheraton

Formerly the Hotel Europa, redecorated in 2000, just on the east end of town, some of the rooms are a little small but nicely appointed. Pool, gym, bar, typical Sheraton amenities, moderately priced.

Other local hotels

The Franklin

A new hotel within walking distance of the studio and right in the heart of Chapel Hill nightlife.

Hampton Inn

A little more secluded than the Holiday Inn (not right on main drag)

Holiday Inn

Recently renovated, located on 15-501 on the east end of town.

Days Inn

Newly built, located on 15-501 on the east end of town.

Red Roof Inn

Located right off of Interstate 40, three miles east of town.
